

Books Change Us!

March is Reading Month 2020

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 Go to the Ann Arbor District Library to stock up for March is Reading Month! Think about a memorable book character. Why do you think this character still has a place in your heart?	2 Ask your friends what books they like the most. Check one of these books out from the library this week.	3 Read a non-fiction book about something you care about.	4 Read a picture book that you really loved when you were younger. Share with someone why you still love it. Make it perfect and read it outloud to someone!	5 Fifth Grade makes bookmarks at lunch. Read about ecology. How can you help our planet?	6 Try a book in a different genre this weekend. Take a break from fantasy and try realistic fiction or do the reverse.  You never know until you've tried!	7 Ask your parents what their favorite books were when they were your age.  Read some of these books together this weekend!
8 Daylight Savings  Read about our solar system or a biography of a space explorer or scientist.	9 Knock knock. Who's there? You start. Read a joke book.  Write some riddles of your own to share with your family.	10 No School Election Day  Read about our country: a history book or biography of your favorite era.	11 Are you reading a diversity book?  Start a book about a character who likes to 'go their own way.'	12 Fourth Grade makes bookmarks at lunch Did you enjoy reading some history? Find out more with another biography or history book.	13 Laura Raynor visits for storytelling fun.  Talk about her visit at dinner tonight. Can you tell your family a story?	14 Write your grandparents: a card, a letter, a text or an email. Tell them what kinds of books that you like to read.
15 Here's a great conversation for family dinner: discuss the differences between the movie version of books and the book itself.	16 Third Grade makes bookmarks at lunch  Read the posters in the hall. What books do you think that you would also enjoy?	17 St. Patrick's Day Mystery Teacher Swap: 12:55 – 1:10  Read an Irish folk tale.	18 Read about someone who has been brave and conquered a problem.	19 Second Grade makes bookmarks at lunch Write yourself a time capsule message: what are you most interested in now and do you think you might still be passionate about it when you are 18?	20 Fifth Grade Desert Isle: come read in the library at lunch recess!  Spring Equinox! Read about birds and their nesting habits.	21 Read out loud to someone at home today. Use lots of expression!
22 Make your family breakfast. Use a cookbook or look a recipe up online.  Later, cuddle up on a snuggly pillow and read for a cozy afternoon.	23 How many different kinds of trees can you name? Do you know what the leaves look like?  Do some research online or with a non-fiction book.	24 Tuesdays are perfect for poetry.	25 Fourth Gr. Desert Isle: come read in the library at lunch recess!	26 Write your teacher a kind note telling him or her what you like the most about being in their class.  Bring it to school tomorrow!	27 Everyone reads in the halls: 2:40 – 3:00  Read a book about friendship. Unlikely friendships are lots of fun!	28 Are you set up with plenty of great books for vacation?  This is a great day to visit the AADL!
