Thurston Community Players Update: Thank You! Join the Fun!

Thank you to everyone who made this year's Thurston Community Players production a success, especially Ms. York, the Thurston custodians, the Thurston PTO, our parent volunteers, everyone who came to see the show, and our wonderful and talented kittens, turtles, and lunch box kids!

Preparation for next year's production is already underway, and here are some ways you can get involved this summer:

- Script brainstorming sessions. Each play begins with one or two brainstorm sessions where volunteers gather to think up the play's themes, plot lines, and characters. This year, we're planning to hold these script brainstorming sessions in June. If you're interested in taking part, please email Amy Bunker (bunkeramy1@gmail.com).
- Script writing committee. After we have a general outline of the play, we create a script writing committee to write the play. This committee will meet a few times over the summer but most of the writing can be done on your own time. If you're interested in helping with the writing, please email Amy Bunker (bunkeramy1@gmail.com).
- Board and leadership roles. We're also looking for volunteers to help sit on the board and to play key roles in next year's production. These include secretary, treasurer, lyric committee lead, music director, internal producer, choreography lead, backstage producer, costume director, prop director, and volunteer coordinator. If you're interested or would like more information, please email ip.thurstonplayers@gmail.com.

Next year, we plan to be back to our regular schedule, with a production anticipated in mid-March. Check our website or follow us on Facebook (Thurston Community Players) for updates. Here are some dates to keep in mind if you'd like to get involved:

- June-August: Brainstorming and script writing
- September: Lyric writing
- Mid-October: Auditions

- January: Rehearsals Begin
- Mid-March: Production

You can ask them about playing piano in the play.
